Here's what our travelers have to say!

In 2010 I led my 10TH trip to Israel, with Friendship Tours. They understand the needs of a Christian group wanting not just a travel experience, but a greater understanding of our Savior's ministry in His cultural and geographical context. Friendship Tours is extremely accommodating of our desired itinerary and works closely and promptly with us to make necessary changes and adjustments. Their professionalism is reflected in the level of expertise and congeniality of the guides and drivers they provide, as well as in the quality of our accommodations. Friendship Tours kept in very close contact with us at each stage of the trip to ensure a most positive experience.

PASTOR HARRY REEDER III - Briarwood Presbyterian Church, Birmingham, Alabama

In my 21 at Trinity Lutheran Church I have led 360 of my parishioners on 12 church tours to Europe and the Holy Land. With Friendship Tours I can plan exciting trips with confidence. They work with me in structuring an itinerary that is suited for my group. Then Friendship Tours takes care of all the details. They are honest, caring and straightforward. I have found a home with a tour company that makes travel dreams a reality. Next year in Jerusalem!

REV. JAMES M. LINDUS, SENIOR PASTOR - Trinity Lutheran Church, Board of Directors, Lutheran Seminary

Friendship Tours has everything it takes to help anyone plan and successfully complete a tour to any destination. I have worked with them on several trips to the Holy Land - Israel, Jordan, and Egypt. Every trip was meticulously organized and their attention to detail sets them apart from most of their competition.

I am glad I gave my business to Friendship Tours. They satisfied my travel needs by providing the best tour at the best price with the best people. I recommend Friendship Tours without any reservations.

Sincerely yours,

D. STEVEN GOUGE, D.MIN. ASSOCIATIONAL DIRECTOR OF MISSIONS - Brushy Mountain Baptist Association
